

Asymptotics of Higher Painlevé Equations

Nalini Joshi¹

April 30, 2007

1. School of Mathematics and Statistics F07, The University of Sydney, NSW 2006, Australia.

The classical second-order non-linear Painlevé equations appear in many scientific applications as mathematical models. Their roles as models demand asymptotic information about their highly transcendental solutions. We will introduce methods to analyse asymptotic behaviours simultaneously for whole hierarchies of higher-order Painlevé equations.